Annual Security Report

2023

John Paul the Great Catholic University (JPCatholic) prepares this report of campus security, emergency response protocols and policies, and crime statistics in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act.

To access the Fire Safety Report, see <http://www.jp catholic.com/studentlife/safety.php>. A copy of both the Fire Safety Report and Annual Security Report are sent to all students and staff of JPCatholic. For a duplicate copy, contact the Risk Manager msampson@jpcatholic.edu.

Reporting Security Problems, Emergencies, and Crimes

Students should report criminal actions, suspicious activity, or emergency situations to the Dean of Students, Title IX Coordinator, General Counsel & Risk Manager, President, or other member of the administration. Criminal actions are then reported to, and handled by, the Escondido Police Department as well as internally per University procedures. In case of a medical emergency, a member of the staff will call the Escondido Police (760) 839-4722 or dial 911.

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the University System or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. With your permission and to the extent allowed by law, the Dean of Students can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crimes statistics for the institution.

In addition, the Operations Department staff compiles campus crime statistics annually and publishes them on the campus website by October 1st. Students and employees are individually notified of this publication by campus e-mail.

Timely Warning

In the event of a situation occurring that is considered to be an ongoing or continuous threat to the community, a member of the administration will disseminate a timely warning for students, faculty, and staff via text message and phone call. If time permits, the warning will also be published on the University's homepage.

Note, a school is not required to provide a timely warning with respect to crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor. In addition, if there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees and the University must follow its emergency notification procedures, the University is not required to issue a timely warning based on the same circumstances; however the University will provide adequate follow-up information to the community as needed.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to a member of the University cabinet or other administrator, by phone 858-653-6740 or in person at 200 W. Grand Ave. If after hours, call 911 for an emergency; otherwise, call the Operations Hotline: 760-670-2744.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

In the event of a significant emergency threatening the health or safety of the University community, a member of the University Cabinet or the Dean of Students will implement emergency evacuation and activate the University emergency contact system. This system communicates with students via text message and phone call.

To determine if an emergency exists, staff members will use common sense. If the situation is unclear, two or more members of the University Cabinet will collaboratively make a decision following the directives of the Escondido Police Department.

In addition, if the emergency concerns student residences, the Dean of Students will notify the Resident Assistants. If appropriate, the RAs will go to individual apartments and disseminate pertinent information.

In the case of an emergency at the student residences, students should assemble in the front of the Latitude33 Apartment Pool/Grill complex, where a school official will notify them of the nature of the emergency, the evacuation center, and any specific instructions (e.g., "You are to go quickly and quietly to your apartment where the resident assistants will take role and assign you to a vehicle").

If an emergency occurs on campus, all students, faculty and staff should assemble in the parking lot of the 200 W. Grand Ave. administration building and await further instruction. A member of the University Cabinet will direct the University community according to the nature of the emergency. Further communication will be disseminated via the University emergency contact system.

Emergency information will be disseminated to the larger community via the University website, phone and e-mail communication.

Authorized “Initiators” for the University’s Emergency Response System

Before the Emergency Response Notification System can be activated, the initiator should attempt to receive approval from at least one other administrator at the Cabinet level. The following personnel are able to initiate, verify, and activate the emergency response system:

1. COO
2. Dean of Students
3. Operations Manager
4. General Counsel & Risk Manager

Evacuation Procedures & Best Practices

1. Safely stop your work

- Shut down equipment that could become unstable or present a hazard
- Gather your important personal belongings such as glasses, prescription medication, keys, and purses.

2. Quickly evacuate the building using the nearest door marked with an EXIT Sign

- Classes in session must evacuate. No one may remain inside a building when an evacuation is in progress
- Do not use elevators
- Go to the nearest safe stairway
- Help those who need special assistance, such as disabled persons and small children
- Touch closed doors before opening. If the surface is hot, do not open — use another exit route
- Close, but do not lock, all doors as you leave
- Note the location of trapped and injured victims and notify emergency responders

3. Report to your designated assembly area

- Stay in your designated assembly area for a head count
- Report any missing individuals and last known locations to emergency responders
- Notify emergency responders about sensitive research, operating equipment, etc.

4. Wait for instructions from emergency responders

- Remain outside at your designated assembly area
- Do not reenter the building until authorized to do so by an appropriate authority (police, fire department, etc.)

Annual Testing

This emergency evacuation procedure will be tested annually. The Dean of Students and COO will schedule a date for the drill and notify the University officials involved. The drill will be documented by the Operations Department, who will describe the exercise, note its date and time, and whether it was announced or unannounced.

Active Shooter Building Evacuation Information

An active shooter is defined as a suspect or assailant whose activity is immediately causing death and serious injury and the threat is not contained.

It is important to have a plan about what you will do in such an emergency. There are three possible responses: Run, Fight, or Hide (The Department of Homeland Security). If it is possible to do so safely, exit the building immediately when you become aware of an incident, moving away from the immediate path of danger, and take the following steps:

1. Notify anyone you may encounter to exit the building immediately
2. Evacuate to a safe area away from the danger, and take protective cover, staying away from windows and doors until notified otherwise.
3. Call 911, providing the dispatcher with the following information:
  - a. Your name
  - b. Location of the incident (be as specific as possible)
  - c. Number of shooters (if known)
  - d. IDENTIFICATION OR DESCRIPTIONS OF SHOOTER(S)
  - e. Number of persons who may be involved
  - f. Your exact location
  - g. Injuries to anyone, if known
4. If you can, prevent others from entering or nearing the danger area.

If you are directly involved in the incident and exiting the building is not possible, the following actions are recommended:

1. Go to the nearest room or office
2. Close, lock and/or blockade the door if possible
3. Turn off the lights
4. Seek protective cover
5. Keep quiet and act as if no one is in the room; silence your cell phone
6. Do not answer the door

7. Notify 911 if it is safe to do so, providing the dispatcher with the following information:
  - a. Your name
  - b. Your location (be as specific as possible)
  - c. Number of shooters (if known)
  - d. IDENTIFICATION OR DESCRIPTION OF SHOOTER(S)
  - e. Number of persons who may be involved
  - f. Injuries if known
8. Wait for police to assist you out of the building

As a last resort and only if your life is in danger, you should fight.

1. Act with physical aggression and commit to incapacitating the shooter
2. Improvise weapons
3. If there are others around you, coordinate your response

This type of incident is unpredictable, and your immediate response depends on the situation you face.

Being Prepared for an Earthquake

During a major earthquake, you may hear a roaring or rumbling sound that gradually grows louder. You may feel a rolling sensation that starts out gently and, within a second or two, grows violent.

OR . . .

You may first be jarred by a violent jolt. A second or two later, you may feel shaking and find it difficult to stand up or move from one room to another.

During your earthquake, best practices include:

- DROP down onto your hands and knees before the earthquake would knock you down. This position protects you from falling but still allows you to move if necessary.
- COVER your head and neck (and your entire body if possible) under the shelter of a sturdy table or desk. If there is no shelter nearby, get down near an interior wall or next to low-lying furniture that won't fall on you, and cover your head and neck with your arms and hands. Try to stay clear of windows or glass that could shatter or objects that could fall on you.
- ☐ HOLD ON to your shelter (or to your head and neck) until the shaking stops. Be prepared to move with your shelter if the shaking shifts it around.

Missing Students

If a student is reported missing, school officials will make a determined effort to locate the student. If this effort is unsuccessful and a student has been missing for 24 hours, the Operations Department will notify local law enforcement agencies so they can commence an investigation. If a missing student is under 18 and not emancipated, the Dean of Students will notify a custodial parent or legal guardian, in addition to any contact person designated by the student. The Dean of Students will also notify a parent or legal guardian if the student is over 18 and has signed a consent form to release information. A student who does not sign a consent form has the option to name a confidential contact person to be notified in case a student goes missing (only authorized college officials and law enforcement will have access to this information in order to further a missing person investigation).

Missing students should be reported to the Operations Department via the Operations Hotline: 760-670-2744.

Security and Law Enforcement

Students are responsible for locking all doors in their apartments. Only the Dean of Students, apartment maintenance staff, and some college administrators have access to keys to all of the buildings at the apartments leased by John Paul the Great Catholic University. Maintenance problems that affect apartment security are to be reported to the Operations Department. Resident Assistants, Resident Directors, and the Dean of Students enforce the rules of residence, provide general campus security information, and give assistance in case of emergency or safety concern.

Students are advised to exercise care and reasonable caution when walking on trails and roadways adjacent to the campus, as well as around campus and the Latitude33 Apartments, especially after dark.

Violations of local, state, or federal laws are reported to the appropriate authorities. Even though the University does not have any off-campus student organizations, we expect our students to obey the civil law both on and off campus. Security personnel on campus have the authority to detain individuals while criminal actions are being reported to the Escondido Police Department. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to report crimes promptly. As appropriate, staff members are encouraged to notify persons of the procedure for confidentially reporting a crime for inclusion in the annual statistical report.

Access to the main campus building is restricted by keycards/ID badges that are issued to students, faculty, staff, and authorized visitors. With some exceptions, students are not allowed in campus buildings (other than residences) without the presence of a JPCatholic employee. Access to the Latitude33 residential community is restricted to residents with a fob. Latitude33 also has an on-site security patrol during some hours of the day.

The University does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off-campus locations.

Informing Students and Employees About Campus Security and Crime Prevention

Students are informed of campus security procedures and crime prevention at freshman orientation in late September through oral presentations by staff and/or local law enforcement, by the Student Handbook (which they sign), when receiving their ID badge, and by periodic student life meetings and/or email communications. As part of the University's crime prevention efforts, serious crimes are reported to the entire community in a timely manner. A crime log is maintained by Student Life staff and is available upon request. Currently, new employees are not formally advised on campus security and crime prevention with the following exceptions: (1) employees are included in the emergency alert system and participate in periodic tests of this system, and (2) employees are informed of the ID badge policy and keycard security when receiving their ID badge.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

With limited exceptions for alcohol as stated in the Student Handbook, the possession or use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs is strictly forbidden on campus and may entail expulsion from the program. The University also reserves the right to dismiss a student from the program for any serious or repeated violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The University strongly disapproves of off-campus use of alcohol by those under legal age, as well as the use of illegal drugs, narcotics and marijuana because it violates the civil law and is harmful to the student and University community. Because of this, students may be disciplined for use of alcohol or drugs off-campus. Infractions may be brought to the attention of a student's parent(s) or guardian.

Programs to Prevent Drug and Alcohol Abuse

During Orientation all new students are educated about drug and alcohol abuse, informed of University policies on these issues, and provided information about appropriate services. Both staff and students are given an electronic copy of the drug and alcohol abuse prevention information (in compliance with 34 CFR 86) and asked to sign a page, recognizing that they received the information. Drug and alcohol information is also found in the Student Handbook, which is signed by all students. All students have access to campus ministers, Student Life staff, and mentors to provide additional personal assistance if they or someone they know is affected by drug or alcohol abuse. Both students and staff may have limited access to an on-campus therapist for addiction-related issues. Resident Assistants received further training in recognizing and responding to signs of abuse.

Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence Policy

Sexual misconduct (or sexual offense) is strictly prohibited. It is a broad term encompassing any sexual behavior that was committed without effective and affirmative consent as defined below. It includes but is not limited to: sexual assault, sexual battery, sex discrimination, and stalking.

Domestic, dating, or relationship violence is also strictly prohibited. It is any physical, sexual, or psychologically abusive behaviors used by an individual against a partner or former partner in an intimate relationship.

Consent: In accordance with California SB-967, the University uses an affirmative consent standard in the determination of whether consent was given by both parties to sexual activity. “Affirmative consent” means affirmative, conscious, and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other or others to engage in the sexual activity. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Affirmative consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual activity and can be revoked at any time. The existence of a dating relationship between the persons involved, or the fact of past sexual relations between them, should never by itself be assumed to be an indicator of consent.

In the evaluation of complaints in any disciplinary process, it shall not be a valid excuse to alleged lack of affirmative consent that the accused believed that the complainant consented to the sexual activity under either of the following circumstances:

(A) The accused’s belief in affirmative consent arose from the intoxication or recklessness of the accused.

(B) The accused did not take reasonable steps, in the circumstances known to the accused at the time, to ascertain whether the complainant affirmatively consented. The standard used in determining whether the elements of the complaint against the accused have been demonstrated is the preponderance of the evidence.

In the evaluation of complaints in the disciplinary process, it shall not be a valid excuse that the accused believed that the complainant affirmatively consented to the sexual activity if the accused knew or reasonably should have known that the complainant was unable to consent to the sexual activity under any of the following circumstances:

(A) The complainant was asleep or unconscious.

(B) The complainant was incapacitated due to the influence of drugs, alcohol, or medication, so that the complainant could not understand the fact, nature, or extent of the sexual activity.

(C) The complainant was unable to communicate due to a mental or physical condition.

Programs to Prevent Sexual Misconduct and Relationship Violence

During Orientation, new students are educated about sexual misconduct and relationship violence, including where to find the University's policies, bystander intervention, risk reduction, and how to report incidents. This information is also found in the Student Handbook, which is signed by all students. The University will be using a comprehensive online training program regarding prevention and awareness of campus violence or sexual misconduct. Further, the University provides the following annually: updates and reminders about campus safety, women's and men's group to discuss sexual health, healthy living, and relationships, and opportunities for on-campus mental health counseling and spiritual direction. Risk reduction activities are also incorporated into class materials in GE classes. The University involves local police in creating prevention plans and promulgating safety tips where appropriate.

All new employees receive the Human Resources Policy, which includes a general Harassment policy as well as a separate Sexual Misconduct and Harassment Policy. Employees must sign that they have received a copy, have read it and agree to conduct themselves in accordance with the policy. Unlawful harassment training is required of all part and full-time employees, other than student workers, every two years. The Human Resources Department tracks successful completion of the training. Staff members directly involved in the investigation and adjudication of sexual misconduct issues received additional training through ATIXA (Association of Title IX Administrators), Grand River Solutions, Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, AICCU (Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities), Vector Solutions and the Husch Blackwell law firm. The ATIXA training occurred in 2018 and 2022, all other training was 2020, 2021 2022 and 2023. Employees also have access to spiritual direction and may have limited access to on-campus mental health counseling.

Procedures to Follow in the Event of Sexual Misconduct or Relationship Violence

Victims of sexual misconduct or relationship violence are encouraged to report the incident to any of the following:

- Dean of Students
- Director of Campus Ministry
- Title IX Coordinator
- Any member of the faculty or staff

These individuals are required by law to report any knowledge of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, to the University Title IX Coordinator (see below). If an individual becomes the victim of sexual assault, it is important for victims to seek immediate medical attention for their own safety and to collect and preserve any evidence of a sexual crime. A victim has the option of reporting a sexual crime directly to the Escondido Police Department, or University personnel will assist the victim with this process upon request. Receiving assistance from the University is not predicated on a victim filing a police report.

Title IX Coordinator

JPCatholic is required to designate at least one employee who is responsible for coordinating the school's compliance with Title IX. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities; the University's Title IX Coordinator oversees policies and procedures that apply to complaints alleging sex discrimination (including sexual harassment, sexual assault, and sexual violence) by employees, students or third parties, and addressing any patterns or systemic problems that arise during the review of such complaints. The University's Title IX coordinator (as of September 30, 2015) is:

Anna Velasco, AVP Human Resources, avelasco@jpcatholic.edu, (858) 653-6740, office location: 220 West Grand Ave., Escondido 92025.

Title IX Investigations and the Title IX Grievance Process

JPCatholic is a Catholic educational institution that takes seriously anti-discrimination provisions under federal and state law and is committed to providing a learning and living environment that promotes student, faculty and staff safety, personal integrity, civility and mutual respect.

JPCatholic's values include fostering an open learning and working environment influenced by accountability, civility, and respect. JPCatholic considers sex discrimination in all its forms to be a serious offense and a violation of this policy, and federal law. Title IX specifically prohibits sex discrimination, harassment and all other sexual offenses. Sex discrimination includes discrimination on the basis of pregnancy. Harassment, whether verbal, physical, or visual, that is based on sex, is a form of prohibited sex discrimination. Sexual harassment also includes sexual violence.

JPCatholic will not tolerate sex discrimination or harassment of applicants, students, employees, guests, visitors, or invitees whether by students, faculty, staff, administrators, contractors, or outside vendors. This policy applies regardless of national origin, immigration status, or citizenship status. JPCatholic's prohibition on sex discrimination and sexual harassment extends to all aspects of its educational programs and activities, including, but not limited to, admissions, employment, academics, housing, and student services.

JPCatholic recognizes not only its legal responsibilities but also its moral and ethical responsibilities to prohibit discrimination and harassment on the basis of sex and to take appropriate and timely action to ensure an environment free of such inappropriate conduct and behavior.

The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces, among other statutes, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Title IX protects people from discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance. Title IX states that: no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

JPCatholic has jurisdiction over Title IX-related complaints regarding conduct that occurred on campus and during or at an official university program or activity (regardless of location). Conduct that occurs in a private location and is not part of an institution's education program or activity is not considered a Title IX complaint. Title IX only applies within the geographic boundaries of the United States.

JPCatholic will investigate all complaints made under this policy and, if necessary, take action to prevent the recurrence of sex discrimination and remedy its effects. Additionally, JPCatholic will not tolerate retaliation in any form against an applicant, student, or employee for reporting a violation of this policy or assisting in the investigation of a complaint.

JPCatholic uses a Title IX grievance process to address formal complaints of sexual harassment under Title IX. A formal complaint is a document alleging sexual harassment and requesting an investigation and/or resolution under grievance procedures. It must be signed by the alleged victim or the Title IX Coordinator. If filed by an alleged victim, the alleged victim must be a current or attempted participant in JPCatholic education programs or activities.

The Title IX Coordinator may file a formal complaint as follows:

- When there is an important institutional interest in adjudicating a report irrespective of the alleged victim's wishes
- Typically involves serious misconduct, repeated misconduct, or misconduct by employees
- If alleged victim does not wish to file a formal complaint, Title IX Coordinator's decision to do so must not be clearly unreasonable

The grievance process includes the following steps:

- Investigation to collect relevant inculpatory and exculpatory evidence
- Live hearing before a decision-maker who finds facts under the evidentiary standard more likely than not (preponderance of the evidence) and determines the existence (or not) of a policy violation and any resulting sanctions and or remediation.
- Appeal

The grievance process is governed by the following general principles:

- Complainants and Respondents will both be treated equitable, both with rights and options.
- No stereotypes based on a party's status as a complainant or respondent.

- Presumption respondent did not violate policy unless and until a determination is made after a hearing.
- All JPCatholic participants will be conflict and bias-free. A conflict is said to occur when a reasonable person would question the individual's ability to be impartial.

If the grievance process results in a finding of sexual harassment, the respondent will receive discipline as determined by those with authority over the respondent. For the complainant, remedies will be given that are reasonably necessary to restore or preserve access to education programs and activities.

These procedures are JPCatholic's exclusive means of resolving complaints of Title IX Sexual Misconduct. The Title IX grievance process provides for prompt, fair, and impartial investigations and resolutions. Any JPCatholic employee involved in administering these procedures will discharge their obligations fairly and impartially. If employees determine that these procedures cannot be fairly and impartially applied because of the identity of a complainant, respondent, or witness, or due to any other conflict of interest, another appropriate individual will be designated to fulfill the role in administering these procedures fairly and impartially.

The Title IX grievance process will be implemented by JPCatholic officials who receive annual training on the issues related to Sexual Misconduct and how to conduct an investigation that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

Any person who believes that he or she has been the subject of Sexual Misconduct, and desires JPCatholic to investigate and resolve the matter, should report the incident. To file a Sexual Misconduct (Title IX) complaint, contact Anna Velasco, Title IX Coordinator and Vice President of Human Resources. She can be reached at AVelasco@jpcatholic.edu or (858)653-6740, extension 1508. To anonymously report a Sexual Misconduct complaint, send information to Anna Velasco at 220 West Grand Ave., Escondido, CA 92025. See the Confidentiality, Privacy, and Reporting section below for more information on privacy rights.

Victim Services, Accommodations, and Case Management

The law requires "procedures for ongoing case management, including procedures for keeping the victim informed of the status of any student disciplinary proceedings, the result of any disciplinary action or appeal, and helping the victim deal with academic difficulties that may arise because of the victimization and its impact." Case management will be provided by the Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX Coordinator will cooperate with others to provide effective protection of health and safety for the victim, assure confidentiality as possible by law, initiate interim sanctions if appropriate, and maintain records. The Title IX Coordinator will provide written notification to victims of the importance of preserving evidence and the availability of, and contact information for, on- and off-campus resources and services.

JPCatholic will provide confidential counseling to students who are victims of sexual misconduct or relationship violence. In addition, the Title IX Coordinator can provide information and assistance regarding other off-campus resources for victims, such as judicial no-contact, restraining, and protective orders.

The University will change a victim's academic, living, transportation, and on-campus work situations upon request, regardless of whether the victim has reported to local law enforcement, provided such options are reasonably available. Possible accommodations include: revised class schedule, option for independent study, safety escort, or different apartment assignment. Requests should be made through the Title IX Coordinator or another Student Life administrator.

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires the University to advise the campus community that information provided by the State of California concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained on-line at <http://www.meganslaw.ca.gov> or by contacting the San Diego County Sheriff's Department, 9621 Ridgehaven Court San Diego, CA 92123-1636 (858) 974-2222.

Disclosure to Victim of Result of Title IX Hearing

JPCatholic will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the results of any Title IX hearing conducted by the college against the student who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, JPCatholic will provide the results of the hearing to the victim's next of kin, if so requested.

Crime Statistics

According to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act, there are specific crimes for which university officials must report a three-year statistical history. These crimes are listed below along with definitions from the FBI Uniform Criminal Reporting System. This data reflects the disclosure of certain incidents, as required by the law, that are reported to campus security authorities or local police agencies for the three calendar years preceding the year in which the report is disclosed. When a potential threat to the campus community occurs, timely warnings will be issued via email or other appropriate means.

The University does not have “non-campus property” as defined by the Clery Act for which crime statistics must be reported.

On-campus housing is located at the Latitude33 apartment complex, 515 Meander Glen, Escondido, CA 92025. The main campus moved on September 28, 2013 from 10174 Old Grove Road, San Diego, CA 92131 to a four building complex at 155, 200, 220, and 237 W. Grand Ave., Escondido, CA 92025, with an additional parking lot for commuters located at 340-380 N. Escondido Blvd., Escondido, CA 92025. As of May 2016, 237 W. Grand was no longer leased by the University for staff/student use. The University purchased 131 S. Broadway, Escondido, CA 92025 on October 13, 2016. The use of the building is limited to storage for university-owned items. Since July 21, 2016, the University has owned but does not use a building on 240 S. Maple, Escondido, CA 92025. Crime statistics are reported as “on campus” for each address only during the period that it was in use.

The University presents crime statistics for crimes that were reported to University officials in the Department of Student Life, the VP of Administration, the COO, or the President (the University does not have a police or campus security department), as well as to local law enforcement. Each campus entity also provides updated information on their educational efforts and programs to comply with the Act.

Note: Clery Act data was obtained by searching a 100 block range for the University’s addresses.
